Pre-Trial Test (boundary not offered), Herding Test, Herding Instinct Test

Obstacle Use for Course D: In addition to the seven required elements, the following elements may be used in any combination: Gate Sort, Extra Obstacles, Figure 8, Mock Footbath, Alleyways (Maltese Cross) and Freestanding pen. Courses are pre-designed, will be randomly selected by the judge, and are subject to judge tweak and approval. Courses will be posted one hour prior to the start of judging.

* ADVANCED HANDLERS * per the AKC, if your dog earns an advanced title on the day of the trial, the dog is not eligible for HC points on that course/stock until the following day. ALSO, we have discovered the AKC is not keeping accurate records for Championship points. It is possible that the free "Points Progression" offered on the AKC website has over-calculated the points, while their internal software has a different number of points. PLEASE contact AKC directly to ensure your points have been accounted for. See Rachael if you need clarification on this.

Limited Entry

Entries are taken in the order received. No priority is given to any one type of entry over another.

- 50 runs per judge, per day*
- Duck limit: 36 runs total per day
- Cattle limit: 12 runs total per day
- Course D Ranch, 10 runs per day

* Each ranch run will count as 1.5 regular runs. For every two ranch entries, the total daily limit will be decreased by one run, for a potential for only 45 daily runs per judge.
