What Do I Enter?

Herding Instinct Test

The Instinct Test is held in a small pen, either round in shape or with rounded corners, which can vary in size from 50 x 50 feet, up to 100 x 100 feet. Livestock used can be cattle, sheep or ducks. The dog will enter the pen on a 6-15 foot long line. Before removing the line, the dog must demonstrate a stop (down, sit or stand) and a recall. Once the dog has completed this exercise, the line may be dropped for the dog to drag, or removed entirely. If the dog cannot exhibit the stop, the tester is not to allow the dog off-line.

Once the dog is allowed to approach the livestock, the tester will be looking for sustained interest in controlling the livestock. This can be shown by the dog gathering the livestock, moving the livestock toward the handler, or moving them ahead of the handler in a driving position. A combination of any of these styles is acceptable.

Herding Test

The dog must be under control and demonstrate controlled movement of the stock from the first pylon to the second pylon, turn the stock at or near the second pylon, and move the stock back to the first pylon, where they are again turned (at or near the pylon) and moved back to the second pylon. At the handler's option, the dog may work the stock across the open arena or along the fence line. The test is concluded at or near the second pylon with a stop followed by a recall. The Judge indicates completion of the test, and the handler leashes the dog and leaves the arena. The five elements of the test, which must be executed are:

1. A controlled pause or stop at the beginning,
- 2 and 3. Two changes in direction at or near the proper pylon while exhibiting controlled movement of the stock,
4. A stop,
5. Followed by a recall at the conclusion of the run.

Notice to Exhibitors

- Bitches in season shall be eligible and will be run at the end of their class.
- There will be no smoking at the show site. Please dispose of trash in the proper manner. Bring shade, water and chair. Event will be held rain or shine.
- All dogs present which are not being worked in the arena must be kept quiet, off course, on leash and away from the fences. Please do not allow them to disturb the resting stock or interfere with the working dog.
- Judges are not required to wait for dogs. It is the responsibility of the owner/handler to have the dog at ringside when required and without being called.
- Day-of-show entries will be offered for herding instinct testing if entries have not reached the numerical limits and must be received by the trial secretary by 9:00 a.m.

Refund Policy

1. Entry fees will not be refunded in the event that a dog is absent, disqualified, or excused by the Judge or Veterinarian, or barred from competition by action of the Show Committee.
2. If because of riots, civil disturbances, or other acts beyond the control of the show giving club, it is impossible to open or complete the show, no refunds will be made.
3. Refunds of entries pulled after closing date will be made as long as an alternate is available to replace the run; if no alternate runs, no refund will be given.
4. No refund for duplicate entries or any other cause beyond the control of the SSCGB after the closing date (Rules Applying to Dog Shows, Chapter 11, Section 6) including injured or sick dogs or handlers. In the event of a spouse, sibling, parent or entered dog's untimely death, an event committee decision will be made.
