Judging Panel

Dave Brobst

(& Joanie Brobst)

Since 1985, we have owned and trained Norwich Terriers. In Obedience we have obtained 4 CDs, 3 CDXs, and 2 UD's. At the time of the first UD, there were less than 10 Norwich with a UD. In Rally, we have obtained 3 RNs, 3 RAs, 2 REs, and 1 RAE. Our Norwich was the first Norwich in the country to earn the RAE title. We also have titled one of our Norwich in agility obtaining MX and AXJ titles.

Currently we are showing in Versatility and in Open.

For many years, we have taught all levels of Obedience and Rally classes. Both of us are AKC Rally judges, and Dave is a Novice Obedience judge.

Donald A. Levinson

I am a father and grandfather, retired jeweler, obedience judge, and still enjoy training and exhibiting. In 1973 I became the third owner of a 10 month old Dobe bitch that became a breed Champion and a Utility Dog, and got me hooked on the sport. I have owned and trained a number of dogs since then. Currently training a young Dobe for Open that hopefully will be ready this Winter or Spring.

I became an Obedience Judge in 1985, and have had the pleasure of judging all over the country. It is a real pleasure for me to judge for the Capital Dog Training Club. My first weekend of judging in October 1985 was for CDTC and if I remember correctly, Doris Baster was the trial chair.

Good Luck to all who are showing this weekend, and lots of Q's with great scores.

Cheryl Pratt

I became involved with dog obedience in the late 1980's when our family brought home a Great Dane puppy. Up until then I had always had small dogs. Knowing this boy would outweigh me I found a local training club and enrolled in a basic obedience class. Like most of us involved in the sport of obedience I was hooked. Over the next 20 years I trained two more Great Danes, a Labrador Retriever and a rescued Greyhound from the track earning four more CD's and two CDX's. I now have a Vizsla with an RAE and a UD and we are currently working on the UDX.

I became involved with rally when it first started in 2005 after attending a seminar with a friend who convinced me to apply to be a judge. Judging rally has been so much fun that I decided to apply for obedience. I am now a Novice Obedience judge and a Provisional Open judge and currently working towards Utility. I am a member of the Mount Vernon Dog Training Club in Virginia and currently the Training Director and the Trial Secretary.

It's such a joy to watch a team having fun and working together in the ring. I would like to wish everyone good luck, remember to breathe and make sure you hug your dog when you leave the ring.

Robert J. Squires

In 1966, after returning from 13 months in Vietnam, and moving to Camp Lejeune, NC, Bob decided to buy a dog. Like many people, he knew nothing about dogs but got lucky with his first German Shepherd. Knowing he should train the dog, he signed up for an obedience training class. Fortunately for Bob, and the dog, the instructor was tremendous. After about 8 weeks of training, he entered his first obedience trial, (there were no matches in the area). In just under 9 months, the dog earned a UD. As Bob soon found out, after training and entering additional dogs, his first dog was especially easy to train.

After a second 13 month tour in Vietnam, Bob ended up in Quantico, VA, and became very active in training. His second German Shepherd and a Miniature Poodle completed their UD's. While at Quantico, Bob became one of the founding members of the Marumsc Dog Training Club, serving as Training Director and President. He was also member of the Mattaponi Kennel Club.

From 1969-1970, Bob began judging matches and was approved to judge Novice in the early 1970's. Around 1975 he was approved to judge Open. Unfortunately, he had little time to judge, as he was transferred to Okinawa, Japan for four years. About a year before moving to Okinawa, Bob purchased his first Doberman and trained her through Utility. In Okinawa, Bob became very active in the Okinawan/American Kennel Club, functioning as training director and teaching classes. The club put on four trials/matches a year, which required Bob to train members, who had never before seen an obedience trial, to judge Novice through Utility classes.

Bob returned to Quantico in 1980 and continued his membership in the Marumsc Dog Training club. He resumed judging Novice and Open classes and gained approval to judge Utility. At this time he obtained his second Doberman, putting a UD on this dog. Bob retired from the Marine Corps in 1983 and took a job in Rochester, NY where he again taught classes and judged. In the middle to late 80's he was offered and took positions with the American Kennel Club. He held various titles to include Director of Obedience, which included overseeing Obedience, Tracking, and later Agility. While with the AKC he conducted Obedience and Tracking judging seminars across the country. Bob also oversaw two Obedience advisory committees, and assisted with Obedience Invitationals, including the first one, which was held in St Louis, MO.

In 1998 Bob left the American Kennel club. He returned to judging, which he really enjoys, especially when he can renew friendships and meet new people.
