Biographies

Phyllis Broderick

The sport of obedience caught my attention in 1975 with my first beagle, who went on to become Banjo Traveler, UD, Can CDX.

I fell in love with the look and personality of the English Springer Spaniel and since 1982 they have been the breed of my choice. I did, however, exhibit another beagle earning her American & Canadian Championship and CDX.

I have shown six springers to various titles, all earning their UDs. AKC & CKC Championships on beagles and a springer; an OTCH on a springer; obedience titles in Canada and Bermuda. I have also earned agility titles and rally titles on my springers.

I have been an AKC judge since 1991, judging all classes including rally and WCFO freestyle. I enjoy judging as much as I enjoy exhibiting. I taught obedience for many years at my own school and various schools in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. I still teach obedience for a local obedience club.

Thank you for inviting me to judge rally and obedience.

David Maurer & Celeste Meade Maurer

Celeste and Dave Maurer have been in the sport of dogs for over 40 years each. They have achieved multiple OTCHs, 200's, CH's and hundreds of HIT's and HC's. Today they are still very active in training and showing their own dogs.

Dave Maurer loves dog sports and he takes great pride in being one of the most fair, knowledgeable and well respected judges. He has campaigned many dogs to OTCH's, has been on team USA and is also very proud to have been awarded the AKC lifetime achievement award.

Celeste Meade Maurer has had a lifetime of dog sports with great success. She has been on the USA world team, has had the #1 dog in the country and takes pride in being one of the top trainers in the country, giving seminars and workshop with her "Attitude is Everything" program. Her passion also includes judging. She is also the proud owner of American K9 County, one of this country's top training and event center.
