This trial is dedicated to the memory of Kerry Troxel & Dr. William V. Thayne (AKC Rep)

Kerry Troxel was a longtime member of the Hyattsville DTC with her Golden Retrievers. She was a hard-working member who was always there with a smile or word of encouragement. She taught several classes at CTA over the years and was an active member of CTA. Kerry competed in AKC and UKC obedience, rally and agility events. She also did some field work with her last dog, Clue, earning his Working Certificate (WC) and most of his Junior Hunter (JH) legs. At some point, she discovered the sport of Freestyle and she was hooked. She earned titles at the highest levels of the World Canine Freestyle Organization.

Watching Kerry and her dogs was truly an example of the love of the sport of dogs. She accomplished much in so many different sports with her dogs. We miss Kerry, her beautiful smile, and gentle spirit at each event we hold. She was truly an example of a loving mother, wife, and grandmother to her family. But to us, she was our friend and the best example of a life well-lived with dogs.

Bill Thane was a longtime AKC Rep for Companion Events. He was a friendly face at trials in the area for many years and is dearly missed.
